ONLINE CATALOG

The catalog contains over 100,000 records from 1978 to present, including Massachusetts state documents. Current periodicals appear in the catalog as do federal documents acquired from 1990 to the present.

LIBRARY WEBSITE

Access to various databases, with a State Library Card, is available through the State Library's website at <http://www.state.ma.us/lib>. The databases include ProQuest, Info Trac, Electric Library, Loislaw, the Union List of Serials, and others.

The website also offers resources via e-mail. Through the internet, you can ask a librarian, apply for a library card, and request an inter-library loan.

STATE HOUSE NEWS SERVICE DATABASE

The library maintains an in-house database of press releases about state government from the State House News Service (SHNS). Including some House and Senate debate coverage. From 1995 to date, there are both paper and electronic versions of the State House News Service.

ALERT SERVICE

The Library publishes monthly online alerts for state employees in seven topic areas: Education, Environmental Affairs, Health, Human Resources, Law, Municipal Affairs, and Revenue. To subscribe send a blank e-mail to the alert service address below (you will receive a confirmation shortly thereafter).
